

Chinese Battle

Search request - details

Lost Art-ID	304396
Permalink	http://www.lostart.de/EN/Verlust/304396
Artist	Unknown (Französisch)
Title	Chinese Battle
Dating	1765 (um)
Type of object	Print
group of reported objects	Graphic
Generic terms	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ historical
Measures	Height: 50.00 cm Width: 87.50 cm
Material / Technique	printed (engraving)
Inventory number	39
Description	Französischer Kupferstich mit chinesischer Schlachtszene in Gebirgslandschaft aus der Folge von 16 Blättern "Die Vorfälle des Krieges gegen die Tartaren", gestochen nach Attiret und Castiglione von Lebas u. a.; Größe mit Rahmen: 59/60 x 97 cm (vgl. Inv.-nr. 40)
Provenance	bis 1942 Sammlung Max Rüdberg, Hannover; am 1. Juli 1942 konfisziert und im Januar 1943 versteigert bei Urban in Hannover

Circumstances of loss	Wunstorfer Str. 16, Hannover-Limmer 1942 Max Rüdberg had a fine collection of East Asian art. It was taken from the Rüdberg home at Wunstorfer Str. 16 in Hannover-Limmer. (The house was called "Schwanenburg" and it had a mosaic of a swan on the floor of the entrance hall.) The confiscation is dated July 1, 1942. On 23 July 1942 Max Rüdberg and his wife Margarete were sent from Hannover to Theresienstadt on the third transport. Both of them died in Theresienstadt. Max had been born on 9 April 1863 and was thus 79 years old when he was transported.
entry published since	2004

Images

Former owner

Rüdberg, Max (Sammlung) / Sartorius Rheinhold

Contact

Prof. Vernon Reynolds
vreynolds@btopenworld.com

Dr. Jake Reynolds
jakerhome@gmail.com

Chinese Battle

Search request - details

Lost Art-ID	304397
Permalink	http://www.lostart.de/EN/Verlust/304397
Artist	Unknown (Französisch)
Title	Chinese Battle
Dating	1765 (um)
Type of object	Print
group of reported objects	Graphic
Generic terms	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ historical
Measures	Height: 50.00 cm Width: 87.50 cm
Material / Technique	printed (engraving)
Inventory number	40
Description	Französischer Kupferstich mit chinesischer Schlachtszene in Gebirgslandschaft aus der Folge von 16 Blättern "Die Vorfälle des Krieges gegen die Tartaren", gestochen nach Attiret und Castiglione von Lebas u. a.; Größe mit Rahmen: 59/60 x 97 cm (vgl. Inv.-nr. 39)
Provenance	bis 1942 Sammlung Max Rüdberg, Hannover; am 1. Juli 1942 konfisziert und im Januar 1943 versteigert bei Urban in Hannover

Circumstances of loss	Wunstorfer Str. 16, Hannover-Limmer 1942 Max Rüdberg had a fine collection of East Asian art. It was taken from the Rüdberg home at Wunstorfer Str. 16 in Hannover-Limmer. (The house was called "Schwanenburg" and it had a mosaic of a swan on the floor of the entrance hall.) The confiscation is dated July 1, 1942. On 23 July 1942 Max Rüdberg and his wife Margarete were sent from Hannover to Theresienstadt on the third transport. Both of them died in Theresienstadt. Max had been born on 9 April 1863 and was thus 79 years old when he was transported.
entry published since	2004

Images

Former owner

Rüdberg, Max (Sammlung) / Sartorius Rheinhold

Contact

Prof. Vernon Reynolds

vreynolds@btopenworld.com

Dr. Jake Reynolds

jakerhome@gmail.com